

Frances Arvilla Mollett

Frances Arvilla Mollett died May 4, 2018, at her home in Hoquiam. She was born Oct. 26, 1920, in Aline, Okla. to parents Robert Chester Dupus and Jessie Enid (Robinson) Dupus. She was 97.

She graduated from Aline High School and worked at the McAlester Southern Bell telephone company during and after high school. She married her beloved husband Larry Martin Mollett on July 23, 1942, in Arapaho, Okla. He preceded her in death May 7, 2003. They moved from Oklahoma to Montesano in 1954, and together built a home in East Hoquiam in 1957, where they raised four children, and where she lived the rest of her life.

She was devoted to Jesus Christ and was a member of the Wishkah Valley Community Church, and a dear mother, grandmother and great-grandmother. She enjoyed her travels to and from Arizona in her retirement years and never failed to connect with family and friends at any opportunity. She was a fine seamstress, teacher and cook, and was especially known for her 'delicious pies and cinnamon rolls. She was a good friend to all and will be terribly missed. Her zeal for life and love of family will never be forgotten.

Frances' survivors include her sister, Ida Mae Washam, of Enid, Okla.; two daughters, Odessa Bargmeyer of Centralia and Janice Bunch of Montesano; two sons, Larry R. of Chino Hills, Calif., and Ed of Aberdeen; six grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Her two brothers, Chester and Wayne, and sister Roberta, passed before her.

A celebration of life will be held at 1 p.m. Saturday, May 12, 2018, at the Wishkah Valley Community Church.

The family requests that in lieu of flowers, donations should be made to the Wishkah Valley Community Church.

Please take a few moments to record your thoughts for the family by signing the online register at www.coleman-mortuary.net.