

God saw that he was tired and a cure was not to be,

So He put His arms around him and whispered, "Come to Me."

With tearful eyes we watched him suffer and saw him fade away,

Although we could not bear to lose him, we could not bid him to stay.

A golden heart stopped beating,
hard-working hands we lay to rest,

God broke our hearts to prove to us
He only takes the best.

*Ed was a very honest, kind man who loved the outdoors.
He enjoyed his climb of Mt. Rainier and of Kangchenjunga in Nepal with Whitaker Mountaineering.
Ricksecker Point at Mt. Rainier was always very special to Ed so be sure to look for him there.
In retirement years, Ed enjoyed traveling to Yuma, AZ with Darlene and enjoying the restaurants and other various activities.*
