Obituary from the Aberdeen Daily World

Leona M. Barnes

Leona May Barnes, 82, a resident of the Wishkah Valley for 34 years, died Thursday at a local hospital. Born June 28, 1899, at Springfield, Mo., she moved to Idaho as a child. In 1922, she married Earl A. Barnes in Idaho. They moved to Washington in 1941 and had lived in the Aberdeen area since then. She was a member of the Wishkah Community Church. Besides her husband at the home, she is survived by two daughters, Berneil Eby and Beatrice King, both of Aberdeen; four sisters, Elizabeth Moore and Jessie Neely, both of Orofino, Idaho, Ella Siderius of Kallispell, Mont., and Lela Thomas of Weippe, Idaho; six grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren and other relatives. The funeral will be at 1 p.m. Wednesday at the Wishkah Community Church. Further information will be announced in the funeral notice column by the Coleman Mortuary.
