Obituary from the Aberdeen Daily World:

James R. Bednarik

Saturday, January 03, 2004, December 29, 2003 OLYMPIA - James Roger Bednarik of Elma died Monday, Dec. 29, 2003, in Olympia. He was 55. He was born on March 18, 1948, in Aberdeen to Adolph and Gloria Bednarik. He graduated from Lake Quinault High School and attended Washington State University. He served in the Navy on the submarine USS Daniel Boone during the Vietnam War. He was currently a sea captain. Mr. Bednarik enjoyed the outdoors and spending time with friends and family. He especially enjoyed helping his children and grandchildren. Survivors include his parents of Olympia; three sons, Joshua of Elma, Jason of Seattle and Dewaine of Auburn; a daughter, Laura of Elma; two brothers, Tom and Leo, both of Olympia; four sisters, Julie Iversen of Astoria, Ore., Jeanne Connor of Atascadero, Calif., Nancy Naujocas of Livonia, Mich., and Janet Schostak of Danville; and two grandchildren. A memorial service will be at 1 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 10, in the McCleary Veterans of Foreign Wars hall. Donations are suggested to the American Cancer Society or the Church of God of Prophecy in Tumwater. Arrangements are by American Burial & Cremation Service of Tumwater.
