In Memory Of

I visited Dan the day before he died,
And while I held his hand,
he said that he wondered what his mom and dad we're doing. I know that they were waiting for their son Dan to join them.
I feel that God has blessed me for being married to him for 66 years.
I thank God every day for him.
I wanted you all to know that after all the pain
Dan had been experiencing,
he had peace after he passed away.
No pain on his face.

Rosalie's Reflections

The Lord is my Shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures; He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul;

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His names sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for thou art with me.

Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou prepares a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;

Thou annointest my head with oil, My cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life; and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever. Psalms 23
