

DAI LY WORLD
NOV. 17, 2010

OBITUARIES

David E. Cobb

David E. Cobb, age 59, a resident of Hoquiam, died on Sunday, November 14, 2010, at Grays Harbor Community Hospital. David was born on November 10, 1951, to Duncan L. and Marilyn A. (Barker) Cobb. He was raised in East Hoquiam and graduated from Wishkah High School in 1970.

David served in the U.S. Army during the Vietnam War. Most of his active duty time was spent in Germany. Upon his discharge, he worked in various shake mills, at Long's Foundry and as a painter in the Portland, Ore. area for several years.

Surviving relatives include his mother, Marilyn Cobb Pratt of Hoquiam; a daughter, Bobbi (Dustin) Kincaid of Westport; a son, Will Lachapple of Colorado; two brothers, Duncan (Debbie) Cobb, Jr. of Montesano and Clark Cobb of Hoquiam; four sisters, Dorothy (Bob) Smith of Moscow, Idaho, Debbi (John) Matisons of Hoquiam, Karen (Bill) Linné of Hoquiam and Terry Serna of Corpus Christi, Texas; four grandchildren; numerous nieces nephews and other relatives.

In addition to his father, he was preceded in death by a brother, Ty Cobb.

David will be remembered for his funny, free spirit and his infectious laugh.

David has gone home to be with our Lord and to quote David, "Oh I'm Sure!"

A memorial service will held at 11:00 am, Saturday, November 20, 2010, at the First Baptist Church of Hoquiam, 729 Eklund Avenue in Hoquiam.

A private urn committal will be held at St. John's Cemetery in the Wishkah Valley.

Arrangements are by the Coleman Mortuary in Hoquiam.

Please take a few moments to record your thoughts for the family by signing the on-line register at www.coleman-mortuary.net.

DEATHS

David Cobb

NOV. 2010

Hoquiam resident David E. Cobb died Sunday, Nov. 14, 2010, at Grays Harbor Community Hospital in Aberdeen. He was 59. He had worked as a painter on the Harbor for many years.

A memorial service is being planned and will be announced in a later edition of The Daily World.

Arrangements are by the Coleman Mortuary in Hoquiam.