

Violet Daisy Lewis

Violet Daisy Lewis, 86, a long-time Hoquiam resident, died Sunday, June 5, 1994, at a local nursing home.

She was born Nov. 27, 1907, in McMinnville, Ore., to James Edward and Nellie (McKinley) Kilgore and lived in Oregon for several years. She picked berries as a child and helped earn money by picking hops when the family moved to Yakima in 1926.

In 1932, she married Lee Lloyd Lewis at Yakima. They moved to Ocean City and later to Moclips, Copalis Crossing and then east Hoquiam. He died in 1992.

From 1962 to 1967, she worked as a maid in Ocean Shores. She enjoyed hunting, camping, and knitting. She also liked to can the vegetables she grew in her garden. Many of her canned goods and quilts were entered at the Grays Harbor County Fair.

She was a member of the Hoquiam Eagles Auxiliary and the East Hoquiam Homemakers' Club. She bewas a member of the Christian Church when it was located in Hoquiam.

She is survived by her daughter, Patricia Bieniek of east Hoquiam; a sister, Gladys Houser of Yakima; a brother, Ernest Kilgore of McMinnville; four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be sent to the Wishkah Valley Volunteer Fire Department, 4641 Wishkah Road, Aberdeen, 98520.

A graveside service with vault interment is set for 11 a.m., Saturday, June 11, at St. John's Cemetery in Wishkah.

Visitation is from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. through Friday, and from 8 to 10 a.m. Saturday at the Coleman Mortuary.

Memorials may be made to the Wishkah Valley Volunteer Fire Department, 4641 Wishkah Road, Aberdeen.

Coleman Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.
