

Jay Reynvaan

Jay N. Reynvaan, 32, lifetime Hoquiam area resident, died Saturday, June 22, 1996, at his home in Hoquiam.

He was born June 16, 1964, in Aberdeen, to Donald W. and Nadine (Noe) Reynvaan. He attended Hoquiam and Wishkah schools, and later worked as a shake block cutter. He then worked as a logger, trimmer, faller, cat skinner, hook tender and held other jobs on the rigging crew. He worked for Sholes, Papac and J.T. Spradlin.

In 1991, he married Cheryl Sjogren in Montesano. She survives at the family home in Longview.

He spent three weeks visiting Tim and Amber Eaton in Alas-

REYNVAAN, JAY N

Date of birth: June 16, 1964
Date of Death: June 22, 1996
Old Section Row B Plot 2116
Memorial headstone

PAID $23.00 paid by brother Max Reynvaan June 27, 1997

REYNVAAN JAY document
Mr. CHERYL SJOGREN
Jay's Donald & Nadine (Noe) Reynvaan d. June 16, 1964
Cemetery Cheryl attended Wishkah 1984. Dr. Roger Sheryl (Acker)
Children:
James
Michael

Jay's parents:
REYNVAAN DONALD W. Mr. NADINE NOE document
2537 E. Hoquiam Rd.
Don brother to Robert "Bob"
Children:
Monica Graduate Wishkah 1973 Mr. I. Dave Cobb Sr. Marjory C.
(Nancy) Davis See Elmer Davis
Jay (twin) deceased in Cheryl Sjogren d/o Roger Sheryl (Acker)
June 16, 1964 June 22, 1996 Jay committed suicide, daughter Jan
See Jay Reynvaan
Jan (twin) m. ? Boon
Max Graduate Wishkah 1978

Jay's memorial headstone is located at St. John's Cemetery, but he is buried at the Montesano Wynochoe Cemetery.

Obituary information from the Aberdeen Daily World:

JAY N. REYNVAAN

Jay N. Reynvaan, 32, lifetime Hoquiam area resident, died Saturday, June 22, 1996, at his home in Hoquiam. He was born June 16, 1964, in Aberdeen to Donald W. and Nadine (Noe) Reynvaan. He attended Hoquiam and Wishkah schools, and later worked as a shake block cutter. He then worked as a logger, trimmer, faller, cat skinner, hook tender and held other jobs on the rigging crew. He worked for Sholes, Papac and J.T. Spradlin. In 1991, he married Cheryl Sjogren in Montesano. She survives at the family home in Longview. He spent three weeks visiting Tim and Amber Eaton in Alaska in 1993, and while there enjoyed tourist activities such as visiting the Million Dollar Bridge, glaciers and fishing. He liked to ocean fish with his brother Max, at the Hoquiam and Wishkah Rivers.

Reynvaan liked to be around children, and also playing new roads in his 4 x 4 truck. He had assisted in the care of his mother, who died in 1994. He did many chores including firewood cutting and mowing her lawn. Along with his wife and father, he is survived by a daughter, James of Longview, a son, Michael, also in Longview; his brother Max of Hoquiam; and two sisters, Monica Davis of Montesano and his twin sister Jan Boon of Elmer. A gathering of family and friends will be held at 1 p.m. Thursday, July 4, at the home of Tim and Amber Eaton, 2467 E. Hoquiam Rd. Family inurnment services will be held at a later date at the Wynochoe Cemetery, Montesano. Coleman Mortuary of Hoquiam is in charge.

Cause of death: Suicide